THE WEBER HONORS COLLEGE CURRICULUM:
HONORS MINOR IN INTERDISCIPLINARY STUDIES (15 UNITS)

Introductory Seminar (3 units): HONOR 113 Connection and Commitment

Outcomes: Contextualize issues from multiple academic disciplines; Apply knowledge of self to map academic goals and pathways; Demonstrate knowledge of campus resources, organizations, and high impact activities to catalyze goals and facilitate pathways; Demonstrate understanding of active learning, self-regulation, and metacognition and their value in education

Interdisciplinary Seminar (3 units):
- HONOR 313 Seminar in Interdisciplinary Studies

Interdisciplinary General Education Seminar (3 units):
- HONOR 413 Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Social Problems
- HONOR 413 Honors Section of a GE Course

Reflective Seminar (3 units):
- HONOR 480 Connection and Community
Outcomes: Reflect on the high impact experiences completed in major department(s), minor department(s), programs, and/or communities; Evidence attainment of core competencies

High Impact Experience:
- Adviser-approved Research, Leadership, Service, or Creative Activity (Choose ONE)

International Experience:
- Adviser-approved Credit-Bearing Study Abroad

Integrative Seminar (3 units): HONOR 495 Integrative Capstone

Outcomes: Assess trajectory of intellectual and personal growth during the university experience; Demonstrate capacity for critical thinking and analysis about values, beliefs, behaviors, and positions; Integrate academic, professional, and community involvement, including major and honors-specific coursework and high impact practices; Formulate action plan for post-baccalaureate personal and professional aspirations