FRANK HYDOSKI SCHOLARSHIP

ALLOCATION: $500.00 - $1,000

ELIGIBILITY: Active honors students engaging in scholarly pursuits and achievements in the humanities, creative arts, sciences, social sciences, applied sciences and engineering will be considered. Any honors student can apply for a Frank Hydoski Scholarship to present their undergraduate research or creative project via an oral or poster presentation at a single-discipline or multi-discipline conference. The conference can be local, regional, or national.

Preference will be given to students who are not funded by a research training grant or other research support program.

Submit completed application, and unofficial transcript to Michelle Lopez, Assistant Dean, Division of Undergraduate Studies, Dean’s Office, Admin 101.

First Name, Middle Name, Last Name:

Red ID:

Email:

Local Mailing Address:

Phone Number with Area Code:

Major(s):

Minor(s):

Cumulative GPA:

Expected date of graduation:

Please list all research training programs, mentoring programs, or other student support programs you have participated in or currently participate in. This includes any federal grant funded programs. NIH Minority Supplements, MARC, Pre-MARC, MBRS-IMSD, BEP, Compact Scholars, CIRM, NIH Training Grants, PPH Pre professional Health, EOP, Guardian Scholars, PsyMORE, FSMP, or list other.
List all honors courses you have completed or enrolled in, and include dates completed/enrolled (if none, type N/A):

List all honors societies you are a member of (if none, type N/A):

List all student, or community, organizations you are a member of (if none, type N/A):

Are you currently conducting research (yes or no)?

Are you currently working on a creative project in your field (yes or no)?

Faculty Mentor/Supervisor (s) on your research or creative project:

Other participating team members on your research or creative project:

Description of your current research or creative project: (250 word maximum).

Please describe why you are applying to this scholarship and how the scholarship funding will be used exactly (500 word maximum). Include an itemized budget for the costs you are hoping to have covered (e.g., registration fees, airfare, etc. to present at a local, regional or national conference). If you are seeking funding to present your work at an upcoming conference, please attach information on the conference, conference location, conference dates, and registration fees or other applicable information, including why have you selected this conference to present your work.