WHITE HOUSE CONVENING

STRENGTHENING SCHOOL COUNSELING AND COLLEGE ADVISING

November 17–18, 2014 • San Diego State University
Data use networks: Informing decisions, driving action & measuring impact

Lindsay Page, University of Pittsburgh
Patty Diaz-Andrade, Harvard University

Howard County Schools
Renee Foose, Superintendent
E. Grace Chesney, Chief Accountability Officer
Lisa Boarman, Coordinator of School Counseling
Fulton County School (FCS)

Korynn Schooley  Chris Matthews
Of high school graduates, 72.5% were enrolling in college directly after high school....
Student-reported postsecondary plans among FCS graduates

...yet, 87% of high school graduates reported plans to enroll in college directly after high school.
Why the discrepancy between intentions and outcomes?

CAUTION AHEAD:
FAFSA FORMS
TUITION PAYMENTS
ORIENTATION
PLACEMENT EXAMS

On-time enrollment
Programmatic response to support students to realize their postsecondary intentions