Dress for Success: Women and Men

What do you wear to a career fair?
To a job interview?
To your first day on the job?

Look professional—first impressions count. HERE'S WHAT TO WEAR:

What to Wear: Women	What to Wear: Men
 SUIT: Wear a conservative suit or conservative dress in black, navy, or dark gray. Skirt length should fall just at or barely above the knee. Pants should be hemmed to skim the top of your shoes.	 SUIT: A conservative, two-piece suit in black, navy, or dark gray is appropriate. Khakis, if business casual is called for.
 SHIRT: Pair your suit with a white or light colored blouse, a nice sweater, or a shell.	 SHIRT: Pair it with a long-sleeved white or light blue tailored shirt
 HOSIERY AND SHOES: Hosiery should be plain or neutral. Shoes should be a closed-toe pump or low-heeled shoe that matches your suit.	 TIE: Choose a conservative tie. Look for something with stripes or a small pattern.
 ACCESSORIES: Wear a minimum amount of jewelry: small earrings, a watch, a ring.	 SHOES: Wear polished dress shoes, dark socks, and a belt to match your shoes.
 GROOMING: Have a well-groomed hairstyle and wear minimal and natural-looking makeup. Your fingernails should be clean. Wear a light polish or no polish.	 GROOMING: Have a well-groomed hairstyle and clean fingernails.
