California Department of Transportation and the California Transportation Foundation 2019

Disability Advisory Committee Scholarship

Applications are now being accepted for the 2019 Disability Advisory Committee (DAC) and the (DAC)/California Transportation Foundation (CTF) scholarships! This year the DAC/CTF will award two scholarships in the amount of $1,000.00 each.

Applicants must meet the following eligibility criteria:

- Recipient must be a US citizen or legal resident of the State of California
- Recipient must be a high school senior or college student (undergraduate or graduate).
- Recipient must have a permanent disability defined by the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA) as having a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities.
- Recipient of the DAC/CTF scholarship should plan on using their education to contribute to the enrichment of transportation in California.
- Recipient must have a minimum 2.0 GPA.

The purpose of the Caltrans Disability Advisory Committee is to advise the Director—through the Civil Rights Deputy director Equal Employment Opportunity Program (EEOP)—about disability issues of concern to California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) employees with disabilities. Specifically focusing on internal operations and activities to ensure equal employment opportunities for persons with disabilities, as well as undertaking projects to resolve issues or problems as they arise. Caltrans Disability Advisory Committee will promote equitable representation and utilization of persons with disabilities in Caltrans’ workforce.

The California Transportation Foundation (CTF) is a nonprofit, all volunteer corporation and its mission is to promote professionalism within the transportation industry.

Download scholarship requirements & applications