
Patti is a co-founder of San Diego State University’s L. Robert Payne School of Hotel and Tourism Management and chairs its Board of Advisors. In 2009, she endowed a professorship in the school’s Institute for Meetings and Events. She is current chair of The Campanile Foundation’s Nominating & Organizing Committee, a member of the Alumni Engagement Committee, Athletics Committee and Executive Committee. She also chairs the MFA in Musical Theatre’s Sounding Board.

In 2014, she was recognized with an honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters for her commitment to SDSU and the San Diego community overall.