+ Majors leading to a BA in Liberal Arts and Sciences have a foreign language competency requirement (consult the SDSU General Catalog for details)

^ In majors with multiple emphases, exact requirements will vary somewhat depending on the specific emphasis (an average is given here)

* Engineering majors don't technically require a minor, but they require extra units above 120

 These majors require some kind of high impact experience, with International experience being one possibility (consult the SDSU General Catalog for details)

Additionally, please consult the SDSU General Catalog for details on the specific requirements and competencies. In majors with multiple emphases, the exact requirements may vary depending on the specific emphasis. These majors require some kind of high impact experience, with study abroad being one possibility. Please consult the SDSU General Catalog for details.
